more than 5,000 children of the colored public schools yesterday afternoon gave a physical training exhibition for the benefit of the school playerounds, at the American League Ball Park. Miss Anita Turner, assistant director of physical training, was in charge.

Ring games, folk dances, drills and exercises with and without apparatus were included in the program. Every grade from the first to the eighth, inclusive, was represented, and practically every school of the four colored divisions had representatives on the field. Pupils of each division were marked as a distinctive division by ribbons and other decorations.

Each grade had some special exercise to give. None was more enthusiastically received, however, than the winding of the Maypoles by the voongsters of the third grades. All of the features seemed to entertain. May his soul rest in peace. BY HIS LOVING WIFE AND FAMILY.
